

St. Bernadette Scrip Program

Scrip is a term that means “substitute money” – in this case gift cards. The cards can be purchased for use at many local restaurants, entertainment venues, and retailers. We even offer gift certificates which can be later exchanged for gift cards. We obtain the gift cards at a discounted price and sell them to you at face value. The parish keeps the proceeds from each sale.

There are hundreds of businesses that offer gift cards through this program. This order form lists the ones we usually have in stock at St. Bernadette. To purchase gift cards, you may visit our table in the gathering space after most masses, use this order form, or order on-line at www.shopwithscrip.com. (To order on-line, you will first need to register as a “family” using the following enrollment code: 9BA5A6AL836. You will then setup a user name and password for future ordering. Orders received or placed on-line prior to 12 noon on a Sunday will be available for pick-up after any of the following weekend masses.) Cash or check are preferred methods for payment, but we accept major credit cards for in-person purchases.

If you have any questions about the Scrip Program at St. Bernadette, please contact Chuck Cullen, Scrip Coordinator, at 513-519-7979 or at StBscrip@yahoo.com. Thanks for helping St. Bernadette!

Enter the number of gift cards you want in the Quantity column. See additional instructions on other side. Remember: there are many more stores to choose from. If you don't see the one you want, write it in at the end of the list and we will try our best to get it for you.
