Small school. Big heart.

From the Desk of Mrs. Ingram

Dear St. Bernadette Families,

We have had two great weeks of school spirit and Catholic pride! Thank you to the eighth graders for organizing our Spirit Week, and to the many faculty members who led us through Catholic Schools Week. Special thanks to Fr. Tim: He took the 8th graders to lunch after Mass at the Cathedral on Tuesday. On Wednesday, we recognized teachers on their "anniversary" year of teaching in Catholic Schools. Mrs. Alvey and Mrs. Cayton are celebrating their fifth anniversary and Sr. Judy is celebrating 25 years in Catholic education. All together, our faculty has served 195 years in Catholic schools, and almost 300 years in education, overall. We will continue to recognize teachers on their anniversaries.

We continue our study of Catholic Virtues. This past Monday, during our Opening Ceremony, we had banners illustrating all the virtues for this school year, and it was impressive to see them all in one space. We moved them to Stievenard for the lunch visits this week, so you may have seen them. We are enjoying the Virtues in Practice program, and I hope the home activities have been rewarding for you. The month of February's virtue is Honesty: Being trustworthy and true. The saints we are studying are Sts. Jacinta and Francesco Marto, St. Kateri Tekakwitha and St. Athanasius.

You've probably noticed that Ash Wednesday falls on Valentine's Day this year. I'm encouraging all the teachers to have any Valentine recognition on Tuesday, February 13. This will allow us to enjoy sweets and chocolate on "Fat Tuesday" and make our observance of Ash Wednesday more reverent.

Have a blessed evening and weekend. Tomorrow: Bowling, pizza and a dance-off. Such fun!

Lizanne G. Ingram
