Dear Parents and Guardians,

TONIGHT: LaRosa's Pizza Challenge!

TOMORROW: Uniforms are back in style!

Thank you for helping your student stay comfortable in the blazing heat this week. Despite the heat, students were able to learn and be together. Tomorrow shows a high temperature of 70 °, but we probably won't see that until dismissal; the morning will be much cooler. Please break out a sweater or sweatshirt, and make sure your child's name is on it.

Kindly do your best to register early for events. Our school community has a history of leaving commitments for the last minute...paperwork, fees, event registrations...waiting on families' decisions makes us wonder if we'll have enough people for a social gathering or a grade level, and this can be really discouraging. We have some amazing parents who spend time heading up social events, organizing sports teams, etc. for our children and families. Please support their volunteerism by participating and by letting them know early you're going to attend. It's good feedback for organizers when they know their invitations are being noticed and accepted!

Tonight, consider registering for the Halloween Party (flyer below) and the Guys Night Out (article further down). Let's beat our reputation of being a last-minute crowd!
