REST IN PEACE

Rose Quehl: Mrs. Quehl passed away at Mercy Anderson on Tuesday this week. Thank you for your prayers last week, and please continue to pray for her family and for her joyful entrance into heaven. At the second Fish Fry, Rose came up to me and handed me a $100 bill, "For the 8th graders," she said. I asked the eighth graders to write her a thank you letter, which she loved. Just before we all went home to "flatten the curve," Rose came into my office and said, "Those boys (students at the Fish Fry) were so kind to an older gentleman the other night. They were talking and laughing with him and I know they made his day. And then we got that Thank You letter! Wow."

"We have great kids, here, Rose. It's a wonderful place," I answered, She nodded and then handed me a check - a generous donation to our school. "I usually wait until the end of the year, you know, for taxes," she said, "But I think you may need it now, with all 'this' going on."

I was speechless, and so touched. I'm glad I got to see her then, and thank her in person. I think she understood that telling me all about "those boys" and sharing her delight with our students would bring me joy on a difficult day. That's how she operated - always humble, and always "other" centered. She truly had a servant's heart.

Rose was really fun-loving, too. She had a great sense of humor and deep appreciation of family. One of her daughters contacted me one summer, right before school started. "My mom has something for you," was all I was told. When I met up with her, the "something" was $1,000 cash. "Use it for the teachers," was the instruction. I looked at her daughter, the question mark etched on my face. She just smiled and shook her head, "We were at the casino and mom won, so she's passing it along." That was Rose...all about spreading good news and good fortune. (The money helped me provide the faculty with food, small gifts, and general encouragement!)

Rose loved St. Bernadette School, which she expressed in so many ways. When I first came to St. B in 2013, she was still volunteering in the cafeteria. I remembered her from my high school days at McNicholas - Barb and Buddy were in the same class with me and Mrs. Ell - and I was delighted to know she was still so active in the school community. I came to know that Rose quietly made it possible for us to assist a family here and there over the years, and as I mentioned last week, hundreds of people have been blessed by her or her family not only at the parish festival, but throughout the school community.

Rose's family, in honoring her love for St. Bernadette School, has asked for donations to be made to St. Bernadette, in lieu of flowers. This is so kind and generous, but I need to be clear: It is not Rose's financial support that makes her special, it's her essence. We will miss her greatly as a person - her ready smile and laugh, her generous friendship and love, and her presence as a matriarch. Mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and loyal friend, Rose Quehl will be forever in our hearts.

~Mrs. I

CANNED FOOD DRIVE and KROGER GIFT CARDS

Please continue to bring in canned foods and any non-perishable items, paper towels, toiletries, cleaning supplies, etc. to help replenish the shelves for our St. Vincent DePaul Society. We will continue to collect all through the quarantine period. Families may drop off donations to school at the bus lane in the box labeled for donations.

Kroger gifts cards, or money donated to help purchase them, are needed for our families who will now depend on St. Vincent DePaul's food pantry to help offset the larger grocery bills and lack of school-based lunches that this extended closure will inflict. Please send this kind of support directly to the parish.
