

March 29, 2019 Newsletter Part II

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As promised, here are the pieces we were missing in the newsletter yesterday. Please note the dates for days off on the calendar, as well as testing weeks when attendance is particularly important. Read on!

WITNESS - The 2019 Spring Concert - Friday April 5 Guidelines for Attire: Think Spring pastels and brights!

For girls: Any bright or light colored dresses, skirts with blouses, etc. Fabric can be solid or flowered, but no slogans or words. Shoes - as nice as possible, and no flips flops or gym shoes.

For boys: Uniform pants with a solid, bright, collared shirt. The shirt can be long or short-sleeved, but ties are needed. Long or short neckties are fine - any color or pattern is fine (no words). The point is to celebrate the season! Shoes - as nice as possible, and no flip flops or gym shoes.

In general, please stay away from black, brown, dark hues and white. We'd love to see brights and pastels all over the stage!

The Art Show begins at 6:00 p.m. in Stievenard and the concert will follow at 7:00 in the gym. When the concert is over, please return to Stievenard Hall to pick up your child's art work. See you there!
