

Small school. Big heart.

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Today was an adventure, but we got through it just fine. Learning occurred, we were able to offer a hot lunch, and now the halls are quiet again. The students did a great job "rolling" with the challenges thanks to the leadership of our teachers and everyone's willingness to make the best of it. Special thanks to Mrs. Ell, Mr. Dickhaus, Mrs. Henninger, Mr. Eldridge, and Mr. Row who assisted with trouble-shooting all day long, and to the substitute teachers who covered a couple of sick teachers on a day with several challenges!

We got internet power back this afternoon, but are still missing power to about 1/3 of the building which is affecting heat in some places and lights in others. Even if this is still the case tomorrow, school will be in session. We know how to work around those challenges.

I hope all of you without power get it restored, soon.

Blessings,

Mrs. Ingram

The Bengals need our HELP!

Students may wear Bengals tops or Orange or Black tops tomorrow with uniform bottoms. There's no charge for this, but no other NFL teams or colors should be worn - we're really just trying to send good vibes to the home team. Want to pay $1? Donate it to the 7th grade food drive for St. Vincent DePaul! As always Saberwear and class spirit shirts are also fine.
